Introduction

The BCS Professional Certificate in Team Leadership assesses knowledge and understanding of the concepts, tools and techniques used to successfully lead and manage teams for high performance. The syllabus assesses candidates understanding of a range of best-practice models for leadership, management and interpersonal skills, which are required in the modern workplace.

Assessment Objectives

Candidates should be able to:

• Understand the impact of management and leadership behaviour on teams, individuals and the organisation
• Understand the importance of being a behavioural role model for the team
• Identify the benefits and drawbacks of different leadership styles
• Describe the key factors that will influence the choice of leadership style in your team
• Describe appropriate actions to enhance leadership behaviour in the context of Adair’s Action-centred Leadership
• Assess own leadership and management behaviours and potential in the context of Goleman’s EQ using feedback from others
• Understand how communication affects team behaviour and performance
• Explain how to communicate and influence effectively
• Describe a range of tools to engage and empower individuals and teams
• Understand the value of managing performance for organisational and individual needs
• Explain how to manage team members in the context of Blanchard’s Situational Leadership II®
• Explain the four stages of competence development
• Describe how to set clear performance objectives for individuals, which are aligned with organisational strategy and vision
• Understand how to evaluate and manage the performance of individuals in the team
• Describe the value of performance feedback and how to provide it effectively using a range of tools
• Explain how Whitmore’s GROW model can be used to coach team members to high performance
• Identify a range of techniques for dealing constructively with underperformance
• Understand how to prioritise work effectively in a changing environment
• Understand the effects of organisational change on individuals
• Describe effective communication strategies to lead the team through change
• Explain Kotter's process for implementing change

Target Audience

This certification is relevant for anyone wishing to gain an understanding of the key frameworks and techniques applied when leading teams. The certification will be of benefit to anyone responsible for leading teams on business change projects, in particular senior business analysts.
Eligibility for the Examination

There are no pre-requisites for sitting this examination although candidates should be prepared to be assessed in line with the objectives listed in the previous section. While not compulsory, it is recommended that candidates attend a BCS accredited training course.

Duration and Format of the Examination

The format for the examination is a 90 minute examination. It consists of 40 multiple choice questions. The examination is closed book i.e. no materials can be taken into the examination room. The pass mark is 26/40 (65%).

Additional time for candidates requiring Reasonable Adjustments due to a disability

Candidates may request additional time if they require reasonable adjustments. Please refer to the reasonable adjustments policy for detailed information on how and when to apply.

Additional time for candidates whose language is not the language of the examination

If the examination is taken in a language that is not the candidate’s native / official language then they are entitled to 25% extra time.

If the examination is taken in a language that is not the candidate’s native / official language then they are entitled to use their own paper language dictionary (whose purpose is translation between the examination language and another national language) during the examination. Electronic versions of dictionaries will not be allowed into the examination room.
