EDUCATION

Sep 2007 – Present   XXXXXXX COLLEGE XXXXXXXX
Msc. Advanced Software Engineering

Module profile:
- Advanced Research Topics
- Intelligent Systems for Legal and Administrative Applications
- Software Measurement and Testing
- Software Architecture and Design

Skills gained:
- Teamwork: Successfully worked within a group of four students towards the design and development of an integrity preserving electronic voting portal. Consolidated variations in technical competencies to foster a homogenous relationship.
- Research: Conducted extensive analytical research of academic literature, peer-reviewed articles and web based resources towards the generation of a 7 000 word report on Access Control policy implementation within distributed environments.
- Communication and Negotiation: Mediatory liaisons performed between students and academic staff as part of the remit of being a course representative provided opportunities to represent student needs and develop relations between both stakeholders.
- Representation: Committee membership of XXXXXXXXX College Postgraduate Network necessitated the conveyance of Graduate student needs to relative authorities.

MSc. Project: Action control – A viable Access Control Policy for Virtual Organizations.

Mar – Apr 2008   BRITISH COMPUTER SOCIETY - SPRING SCHOOL
Being a Dynamic Successful Project Manager

Sep 2002 – Jan 2007   XXXXXXXXXXXX UNIVERSITY (Upper Second Class Honours)
BSc. Honours Information Technology with Business Information Systems

BSc. Project: Software for Testing Human Response to Screen Icon Movement.
Investigative research into the correlation of age and reactionary abilities of users.

Module profile:
- Management Information Systems
- Decision Support Systems
- Ethical, Legal and Professional Issues of Computing
- Commercial Web Design

Sep 2001 – May 2002   XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX
Access to Computing, Math and Science
(London Open College Certificate)

Jan 1992 – Sep 1999   UNIVERSITY of XXXXXXX INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL
7 GCSE's including English (B) and Mathematics (B)

CHARTERED AFFILIATION:   British Computer Society (BCS)
- XXXXXXXXX Branch Committee member.
- Young Professionals Group representative.

KING'S COLLEGE LONDON: Extracurricular activity
- MSc. Advanced Software Engineering Course representative.
- Post Graduate Network committee member.

WORK EXPERIENCE

May – July 2008   The Career's Group, University of XXXXXXX- Russell Square, London
Destination of Leavers from Higher Education (DLHE) Operator
I conducted a government commissioned survey to ascertain the career destinations of recent graduates from within and outside the University of London network.
- Graduate database management.
- Provided career management advisory services to students.
- Analysed and communicated survey findings for report generation.

April – May 2008   NHS Trust, XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX
Medical records Project Administrator
Part of a national drive to digitally archive patient records.
- Catalogued and tracked patient medical records.
- Implemented systematic batch removal of case notes for imaging.

Jul 2003 – Jan 2007   XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX- Totteridge, London
Loan Consultant
My departmental responsibility included client-relationship management within which I was entrusted with processing web-based loan applications.
- Employed listening skills to analyse the financial requirements of prospective customers.
- Persuasive abilities used to achieve custom for the company upon analysis of customer needs.
- Administered authentication process checks on customer details.

Sep 2002 – May 2003   XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX- Borehamwood, Hertfordshire
Outbound Call Operator
I conducted telephone-based sales oriented liaisons with customers on behalf of a leading independent mobile communications dealership.
- Pitched mobile communication products and related services to potential and existing clients.
- Provided mediatory services between customers and network operators.

Jun 2002 – Aug 2002   XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX- Islington, London
Exam Processing Assistant
A vacation job working for the U.K's largest national education services award body.
- Part of the GCSE team credited with the best processing against volume times.
- Assisted in the meticulous maintenance of a ±200 000 candidate script library.

School Holidays
- Varied role assisting in family owned packaging and international trade fair representative firms.

I.T SKILLS
- Business Rule authoring: RuleBurst 9.1
- RDMS:   Access, SQL, Oracle
- Operating Systems:   Windows 2000/XP/Vista
- Languages:   ASP, CSS, HTML, SQL, DTD, XML, SQL, Java, .Net, UML 2.0

LANGUAGES
- German   Basic (conversational)

INTERESTS
- Technology & Volunteering: My interest in appreciating how computer technology can be adapted to increase value has transcended academic vocational boundaries. This has led to a committed voluntary involvement with the British Computer Society in various capacities.
- Culture: I have a keen interest in a varied representation of creative expressionism such as Art, Language, Literature and Architecture. This past time also exposes me to a myriad of people from different backgrounds.
- Travel: Any opportunity for local and international travel is always treated with excitement as it presents an invaluable opportunity to enrich my perspective.
- Sports: I am an avid sports fan with particular affinity for Football, Table tennis and extreme sports.