

Changes from 2018 Guidelines (issued May 2018) to 2020 Guidelines (issued January 2020)

Accreditation by programme type

Paragraph, page reference	Addition
Joint integrated masters programmes  Table 1.5, page 7	Joint integrated masters programmes can now be considered for Full CITP (previously Partial CITP), subject to meeting the minimum computing credit points (including project):  240 of which 80 are at levels 6/7  [Project: 30 credits at level 6 or 7]

Engineering Council: Compensation and Condonement

Paragraph, page reference	Addition
Section 2.1 Quality assurance and enhancement, page 10  Appendix V, page 46	Addition of an appendix detailing new rules and further guidance.

Further guidance on specific criteria

Paragraph, page reference	Addition
New section 2.6.5 Groupwork (criteria 2.3.1, 5.1 and 7.1.9), page 18  Previous section on zero-rated modules now 2.6.6	Further guidance on expectations to meet accreditation requirements

Accreditation criteria changes

Paragraph, page reference	Previous Wording	New Wording
Appendix III Section 4 Additional requirements for undergraduate programmes, page 33  Section 6 Requirements for IEng, page 35  Section 9 Masters level additional requirements for CEng, page 39	N/A	4.0 and 9.0 HEI compensation and condonement regulations conform to the Engineering Council rules for CEng accreditation  6.0 HEI compensation and condonement regulations conform to the Engineering Council rules for IEng accreditation

Changes from 2018 Guidelines (issued May 2018) to 2020 Guidelines (issued January 2020)

General updates

Paragraph, page reference	Change
1.4 Programme structures page 5	Inclusion of alternative credit structure, ECTS
Throughout	Reference to 'equivalence', recognising different level/credit structure