

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO RAISE YOUR PROFILE IN THE IT INDUSTRY?

Step this way...

Exciting opportunities ahead!

We've partnered with BCS, The Chartered Institute for IT, to provide you with BCS membership. Why? Because we recognise the value of personal and professional development and want to help you find new and better ways of meeting your work and career challenges.

BCS who?

BCS, The Chartered Institute for IT, is your industry body. They're on a mission, set by royal charter, to support the people in the industry and to create a world in which everyone benefits from technology. They do this by collaborating with their key partners and global membership community to share expertise, promote professionalism and ethics, and develop career pathways.

Sounds good – count me in

Come along to our official BCS membership event to meet the BCS team and take a closer look at what BCS can offer you... If you are not already a member, you can join for free on the day just by completing a short form.

We look forward to seeing you there.

Why should I join BCS?

BCS membership is about staying relevant in our fast-changing industry. It's about keeping up with the latest thinking, demonstrating your credibility and raising your professional profile. You gain industry letters after your name and access to the global industry skills framework, SFIAplus. As well as a host of career-boosting benefits. As a member, you can also achieve professional registration, including RITTech, CITP, CEng and IEng to complement your new status.

When you join, you'll sign up to the BCS code of conduct and take your place alongside business leaders, practitioners, educators and policymakers all working together to raise standards of performance across the industry. You'll be playing your part in building a trusted and respected IT profession that's ready to lead our society into a safe digital future.
