Joining instructions will be issued after registration. NB. There will be a FINSiG event to follow the AGM

Agenda:

1. Welcome and Introductions
2. Roll call of BCS members present and eligible to vote
3. Apologies for Absence
4. Review and approve the minutes of the 2019 AGM
5. Matters arising from the Minutes of the 2019 AGM
6. Receive the Annual Report of the Chair
7. Receive and approve the Treasurer's Report
8. Elect the Officers and Committee for 2020-2021 (see notes 1 to 7 below)
9. Consider any other business relevant to the AGM

Notes:-

1. Nomination and election procedure: The nomination and election of Officers and other Committee Members will be undertaken in accordance with the rules set out in the BCS FINSiG Constitution. These rules are summarised below. Nominations are requested for Officers and other Committee Members per Note 2 below. The Officers and Committee Members who have indicated their willingness to stand for re-election are shown in Note 7 below.

2. Nominations: FINSiG is still looking for enthusiastic members to join the Committee to help deliver a great 2022 / 2023 season of events. Please email directly to stephen.murgatroyd@bcs.org.uk or visit our website

The name of any member accepting nomination for election or re-election as an Officer or as a Committee Member should be submitted in writing to the Secretary (by email to the FINSiG Secretary stephen.murgatroyd@bcs.org.uk 14 clear days prior to the date of the AGM by 2 members of the Group and with the written consent of the nominee. Nominations by self or others, may also be proposed and seconded at the AGM itself if not previously received by the Secretary.

3. Procedure for election of Officers: The current Chairman will step down and another member of the Committee takes the chair until the new Chairman is elected. The new (or re-elected) Chairman then takes the chair, and the other current Officers then step down. Elections are then held for the Officer positions.

4. Procedure for election of other Committee Members: If there is more than one nomination for any of the other Committee Member positions, an election will be held at the AGM. If the nominations for other

Committee Members number the same or fewer than the remaining vacancies, all shall be deemed duly elected. In the event of there being more nominations than vacancies, the elections shall be by ballot. Each member present may vote for up to as many candidates as there are vacancies to be filled and no more. This year voting will be both in-person and online using the “raise hand” within the webinar software

5. Term of office: All Officers and other Committee Members elected at the AGM will serve from the end of the AGM at which they are elected until the AGM following.
6. Voting: At any General Meeting each BCS member shall be entitled to one vote. Voting at any meeting shall be determined by a show of hands, unless a ballot be demanded by at least one-third of the members present.
7. Current roles: The current roles and responsibilities of Officers and other Committee Members are set out in the table below. Column 4 of the table indicates whether the current incumbent is willing to stand for re-election to the relevant post. Other members of the Group may also agree to be nominated for any post (subject to the nomination procedure above), and the Group welcomes any member offering to assist actively in its activities.
10. Attendance and Registration: We aim to begin the AGM at 18:15 sharp, in order to keep to time with the subsequent event. For security purposes, attendees are asked to register their intention to attend on the Group’s website: www.bcsfinsig.org or via <https://finsg040422.eventbrite.co.uk>.
11. BCS Rules for the conduct of Specialist Groups can be found here:-
