

GILLIAN LOVEGROVE

Strategic Panel Member and HE Consultant to BCS

Gillian studied Maths at Cambridge and was a Diploma student in the Mathematical Laboratory.

She completed a PhD under David Barron at Southampton University when she was a lecturer there.

She became Associate Dean at Staffordshire University and later Dean of Informatics at Northumbria University.

Gillian is a past Chair of the Council of Professors and Heads of Computing (CPHC) and chairs the CPHC Information Strategy Group.

She is currently the Manager of the Education and Training Forum, working as a consultant for the BCS.

Strategic Panel